

SERIES OVERVIEW

How to Friend

A 3-week series about friendship and Biblical community.

Friendships can be complicated. Add in the drama, pressures, constant connection and hormones that play a part in today's high school experience and connecting with other humans can be really overwhelming. In this 3-week series, we're going to take a look at how to navigate some of the most common experiences in our friendships with other people. Whether it's being a great friend, finding the right friends, or figuring out how to step away from some friendships, it isn't always easy. But, we know this: The work to both find and be a great friend is worth it. The earlier teenagers learn how to build great friendships, the better their future relationships will be. That's why we're offering a way for high schoolers to learn how to friend.
